

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SHELOWITZ & ASSOCIATES EXPANDS ITS NEW YORK OFFICE

The firm has moved up to the 16th floor at 11 Penn Plaza to accommodate its growing practice

New York, July 14th, 2008- The business law firm of Shelowitz & Associates PLLC is expanding and has moved to larger offices at 11 Penn Plaza in Manhattan. The move, effective July 1st, reflects the firm's steady growth since its inception in March 2007.

"The firm has been growing at a fast pace, reflecting our clients' satisfaction and confidence. We are extremely excited about the move, which will allow us to continue our expansion," said Managing Member, Mitchell C. Shelowitz.

The firm is relocating to the 16th floor at 11 Penn Plaza, a beautiful historic building, built in 1923. 11 Penn Plaza occupies the East side of Seventh Avenue between 31st and 32nd Streets, directly across from New York's Penn Station.

About Shelowitz & Associates

Shelowitz & Associates is a business law firm with extensive experience representing both companies and individuals in the U.S. and abroad, in all phases of the business lifecycle — from start up companies with no revenue to companies with millions in revenue. Shelowitz & Associates has a focused expertise in the representation of corporations involved in the technology, telecommunications, Internet, entertainment and hospitality, consumer brands, and food and beverage industries.

Located in Manhattan, the firm distinguishes itself not only in the sophisticated background of its lawyers, but in its dedication to providing personalized attention with a business approach that is tailored to the needs of its clientele.

For additional information about the firm, please contact Mitchell C. Shelowitz, at 646-839-4621, mshelowitz@salaws.com and visit the firm's website at www.salaws.com.
